Re: Business Reference

Dear Nidhi,

I am most pleased to write this letter of reference and introduction on behalf of MINDSPRINGS SOLUTIONS.

Our firm represents businesses in the Northern California area of the United States. Our introduction to your company came about as a result of two lawsuits, one in which our client is being sued for thirty million dollars, and another where the client is being sued for fifteen million dollars.

We began the preparation of special interrogatories in one of those cases. At the time we turned the project over to Mindsprings, the Interrogatories numbered close to 3,000 and ran over 650 pages. The necessary attention to detail to complete the project (which eventually numbered over 7,000 questions and ran over 1,800 pages in length) - was extraordinary.

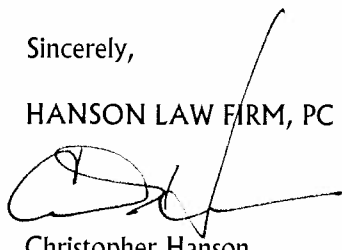

I, personally, reviewed the end result of the work product your staff delivered to our firm; and I know what it would have taken my staff here in California to complete the project -- hundreds of hours, and multiples of thousands of dollars. The ability to leverage our staff time, and your resources has proven immensely beneficial to our firm and our client.

As I understand it, you offer additional legal research and drafting, litigation coding, document review, deposition summarization, legal transcription and other Paralegal services as well. I know that we will not hesitate to use your services in the future, and have no qualms about referring your company to others.

Indeed, should any of your prospective clients feel a need for assurance beyond this letter, have them feel free to contact me personally. Feel free to web-post this too.

Sincerely,

HANSON LAW FIRM, PC

Christopher Hanson
